

Beach Cities Symphony Slates Dec. 20 Concert

The Beach Cities Symphony will present its second concert of the season Friday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m. in Redondo Union High School auditorium, Redondo Beach.

The musical presentation includes the entire symphonic suite, "Scheherazade" by Rimsky-Korsakov; the Die Fledermaus Overture from the comic opera by Johann Strauss Jr.; Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," and excerpts from the "Nutcracker" by Tchaikovsky. Under the leadership of conductor Louis Palange, the concert program has been expanded to include identifying photographs of the orchestra members, all representing local musical talent. There are a few openings in the strings and woodwinds sections, but only in limited degree.

Open Rehearsals
A "welcome mat" policy of open rehearsals is still in force. All interested musicians and other visitors are invited. The orchestra meets each Tuesday night in the music room, Mira-

Costa High School, Manhattan Beach. The Beach Cities Symphony Assn. will announce a high school scholarship later in the season, and money usually expended by the association on printing will now be diverted towards a fund for music student awards.
Plans are being formulated to offer a special program later in the season with the Beach Cities Ballet Company, Barbara Simonson and Irena Kosmowska, co-directors.

In addition to the intensive rehearsals now in progress for the Dec. 20 concert, the orchestra is also beginning rehearsals on an original symphonic-ballet work by Palange, which it hopes to premiere next season.
The Beach Cities Symphony Assn., Inc. is presided over by Dr. George C. Anderson, M.D., Hermosa Beach. It includes Mrs. Helen Hart Whitaker, chairman; Frank E. Sasine, vice chairman; Leland M. Cave, treasurer; Marvin H. Seiver, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Crumley, corresponding secretary; Marya Cressey Wright; Leslie Brigham, William H. Mallory, Clifford A. Webster, Rodney M. Norris, and Walter Anderson.

Orchestra personnel include Alex. Pierce, concertmaster; Norma Gass, assistant concertmaster; Mary Shattuck, principal; Virginia Adamson, Jon Baldwin, Jack Shulman, Jan Bittinger, Jeanette Hackett, Elaine Hurffer, Magda Lengyel, Ethel Lockyer, Rosemary Nagle, Carmelina Palange, C. A. Perett, Kathleen Risch, Thomas Silk, Joseph Singer, Spiro Stamos, Clifford Webster, Kathryn Woolson, Joseph Rashio, Norma O'Brien, Ronnie Chase, Laurette Chase, Allan Freedman, Phyllis Swan, Samuel Galanter, and Francis Drews.

Violas: Paul Bennett, Albert Desrosiers, Jeanne Eversole, Ethel Katz, Ralph Lane, Vernon Montgomery, and Charles Osborne.

SYMPHONY MEMBERS . . . Rodney M. Norris of Torrance is a clarinetist and member of the board of directors of the Beach Cities Symphony which will present its second concert of the season on Friday, Dec. 20, in Redondo Union High School Auditorium. Reservations may be made by calling him.

Prairie Ave. Bids Studied

Apparent low bidder for improvement of Prairie Ave. between 174th St. and 182nd St. was the S. A. Cummings Co. of Compton who submitted a bid of $24,775.43, according to City Engineer Ronald W. Bishop.

Improvement calls for widening of the roadway, installation of curbs, and gutters, and paving the street, Bishop said.

Other bids submitted by six bidders ranged up to $29,963, Bishop said.

All bids are being studied by Bishop's office and will be recommended to the council next Tuesday.

Case of Missing Title Solved by Local Resident

A few red faces were seen around Torrance over the week end as the case of the missing tile shower floor was solved.

Alvin A. Decker, 18931 Felbar Ave., told police Saturday that someone had entered his home and removed all the ceramic tile from the shower floor.

Later that same day, Decker reported, his cry of "burglars" was mistaken.

Real estate company officials who handled work on his home told him they had the tile removed but had failed to notify him in advance.
